

7 The relationship between the variables P and Q is modelled by the formula

$$Q = aP^n$$

where a and n are constants.

Some values of P and Q are obtained from an experiment.

- (a) State appropriate quantities to plot so that the resulting points lie approximately in a straight line. [1]
- (b) Explain how to use such a graph to estimate the value of n . [2]