

A child attempts to drag a sledge along horizontal ground by means of a rope attached to the sledge. The rope makes an angle of 15° with the horizontal (see diagram).

Given that the sledge remains at rest and that the frictional force acting on the sledge is 60 N , find the tension in the rope. [2]