

The diagram shows the curve $5x - 2xy + 2y^2 - k = 0$, where k is a positive integer.

At the points P and Q on the curve, the tangents to the curve are parallel to the y -axis.

Given that the difference in the y -coordinates of P and Q is 3, determine the x -coordinates of P and Q .